The Legal Background

Under section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, the NIPB is required to have due regard to the need to promote equality of opportunity:

- between person of different religious belief, political opinion, racial group, age, marital status or sexual orientation;
- between men and women generally;
- between persons with a disability and persons without; and,
- between persons with dependants and persons without¹.

Without prejudice to the obligations set out above, the NIPB is also required to:

- have regard to the desirability of promoting good relations between persons of different religious belief, political opinion or racial group; and
- meet legislative obligations under the Disability Discrimination Order.

Introduction

- This Equality Screening form should be read in conjunction with the Equality
 Commission's revised Section 75, "A Guide for Public Authorities" April 2010 Staff should complete a form for each new or revised policy for which they are responsible (see page 6 for a definition of policy in respect of section 75).
- 2. The purpose of screening is to identify those policies that are likely to have an impact on equality of opportunity and/or good relations and so determine whether an Equality Impact Assessment (EQIA) is necessary. Screening should be introduced at an early stage when developing or reviewing a policy.

¹A list of the main groups identified as being relevant to each of the section 75 categories is at Annex B of the document.

- 3. The lead role in the screening of a policy should be taken by the policy decision-maker who has the authority to make changes to that policy and should involve, in the screening process:
 - other relevant team members;
 - those who implement the policy;
 - staff members from other relevant work areas; and
 - key stakeholders.

A flowchart which outlines the screening process is provided at Annex A.

- 4. The first step in the screening exercise is to gather evidence to inform the screening decisions. Relevant data may be either quantitative or qualitative or both (this helps to indicate whether or not there are likely equality of opportunity and/or good relations impacts associated with a policy). Relevant information will help to clearly demonstrate the reasons for a policy being either 'screened in' for an equality impact assessment or 'screened out' from an equality impact assessment.
- The absence of evidence does not indicate that there is no likely impact but if none is available, it may be appropriate to consider subjecting the policy to an EQIA.
- Screening provides an assessment of the likely impact, whether 'minor' or 'major', of its policy on equality of opportunity and/or good relations for the relevant categories. In some instances, screening may identify the likely impact as 'none'.
- 7. The Equality Commission has developed four questions, included in Part 2 of this screening form with supporting sub-questions, which should be applied to all policies as part of the screening process. They identify those policies that are likely to have an impact on equality of opportunity and/or good relations.

Screening decisions

- 8. Completion of screening should lead to one of the following three outcomes.

 Namely, the policy has been:
 - i. 'screened in' for equality impact assessment;
 - ii. 'screened out' with mitigation or an alternative policy proposed to be adopted; or
 - iii. 'screened out' without mitigation or an alternative policy proposed to be adopted.

Screening and good relations duty

9. The Equality Commission recommends that a policy is 'screened in' for equality impact assessment if the likely impact on good relations is 'major'. While there is no legislative requirement to engage in an equality impact assessment in respect of good relations, this does not necessarily mean that equality impact assessments are inappropriate in this context.

Part 1

Definition of Policy

There have been some difficulties in defining what constitutes a policy in the context of section 75. It is recommended that you consider any new initiatives, proposals, schemes or programmes as policies or changes to those already in existence. It is important to remember that even if a full EQIA has been carried out in an "overarching" policy or strategy, it will still be necessary for the policy maker to consider if further screening or an EQIA needs to be carried out in respect of those policies cascading from the overarching strategy.

The Equality Commission document entitled 'Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998- A Guide for Public Authorities indicates that:

"In the context of Section 75, the term policies cover all the ways in which a public authority carries out or proposes to carry out its functions relating to Northern Ireland. Policies include unwritten as well as written policies".1

Overview of Policy Proposals

The aims and objectives of the policy must be clear and terms of reference well defined. You must take into account any available data that will enable you to come to a decision on whether or not a policy may or may not have a differential impact on any of the s75 categories.

Policy Scoping

- 10. The first stage of the screening process involves scoping the policy under consideration. The purpose of policy scoping is to help prepare the background and context and set out the aims and objectives for the policy, being screened. At this stage, scoping the policy will help identify potential constraints as well as opportunities and will help the policy maker work through the screening process on a step by step basis.
- 11. Public authorities should remember that the Section 75 statutory duties apply to internal policies (relating to people who work for the authority), as well as external policies (relating to those who are, or could be, served by the authority).

Available evidence

- 14. Evidence to help inform the screening process may take many forms. Public authorities should ensure that their screening decision is informed by relevant data.
- 15. What evidence/information (both qualitative and quantitative) have you gathered to inform this policy? Specify details for each of the Section 75 categories.

Section 75 Category	Details of evidence/information
Religious belief	According to the most recent Census figures for Northern Ireland taken in 2011, 48% of the resident population are either Protestant or brought up as Protestant. While 45% of the resident population are either Catholic or brought up Catholic and 17% say they either had No Religion or Religion Not Stated. Other Religions and Philosophies comprised 0.8% of the population. 66.77% of Police Officers are from a perceived Protestant background whereas 31.94% are from a perceived Roman Catholic background. With regards to Police Staff 77.65% are from a perceived Protestant background while 19.95% are from a perceived Roman Catholic background. – (PSNI Statistics)
Political opinion	Of the 19 members of the NI Policing Board 10 represent political parties. Their breakdown is DUP 4, Sinn Fein 3, SDLP 1, Alliance 1, Ulster Unionist 1 - (Staff Figures May 2021) On Census Day 2011, almost half (48%) of people usually resident in Northern Ireland included British as a national identity, while 29% included Northern Irish and 28% included Irish.

	Research commissioned by the Policing Board in 2014 looking at the influence that politicians, community leaders and the media have on confidence in the police in Northern Ireland concluded that confidence in policing is hostage to political fortune for events and issues not directly within PSNI's control; it is not a constant nor should it necessarily be treated as such;
	that public confidence in PSNI is taken from narrow (often negative) contexts PSNI need to be more proactive in broadening out positive public knowledge of policing; and beyond the Board's national confidence figures.
	On Census Day 2011, 1.8 per cent (32,400) of the usually resident population of Northern Ireland belonged to minority ethnic groups, more than double the proportion in 2001 (0.8 per cent). The main minority ethnic groups were Chinese (6,300 people), Indian (6,200), Mixed (6,000) and Other Asian (5,000), each accounting for around 0.3 per cent of the usually resident population. A further 0.1 per cent (1,300) of people were Irish Travellers. Belfast (3.6 per cent), Racial group	Castlereagh (2.9 per cent) and Dungannon (2.5 per cent) had the highest proportions of residents from minority ethnic groups.
	The 2019/20 NICS on perceptions of crime indicated that 18% of respondents perceived racism as one of the major causes of crime in Northern Ireland.

	Otaliolog).
	The 2011 Census provides the latest data on Northern Age	Ireland's population showing approximately one third of the population is made up of children and young in the 16-24 age group. Older people aged 65+ make up 14.6% of the population.

	21% of 18-24 year olds agreed they don't feel confident reporting crime and antisocial behaviour to the PSNI - (Life and Times Survey).
	Across nine major crime categories, six had a lower clear up rate for older victims than younger ones. This included the two categories with the highest number of older victims – (Hourglass NI).
	Almost half (48%) of people aged 16 years and over on Census Day 2011 were married, and over a third (36%) were single
Marital status	Just over 1,200 people (0.1%) were in registered same-sex civil partnerships
	A further 9.4% of residents were either separated, divorced or formerly in a same-sex civil partnership
	The remaining 6.8% were either widowed or a surviving partner - (NI Assembly paper on the 2011 Census).
	In 2019/20, the fourth highest number of homophobic crimes were recorded in Northern Ireland since 2004/05. In the same year, nearly three times as many transphobic crimes were recorded compared to 2018/19 – (PSNI Statistics).
Sexual orientation	1 in 10 people in Northern Ireland would not identify as being heterosexual - (Rainbow Project).
	More than 1 in 4 LGBT people working in the public sector believe that their sexual orientation will have a negative impact on their chances of progressing at work - (Rainbow Project).

	One in ten serving female police officers responded to a survey conducted on behalf of the Police Federation and the Independent Commission into the Future of Policing.
	20% were part time – nearly identical to the 19% found in the general working population
Men and Women generally	Two thirds of police women have caring responsibilities, of not only children but also for aging parents (Police Federation / Independent Commission for the Future of Policing)
	In 2019/20, 31817 domestic abuse incidents occurred in Northern Ireland, the highest figure since the start of the data series in 2004/05. 69% of all domestic abuse crime victims were female and 30% were male.
	Just over 20% of the population indicated in the 2011 Census that they have a disability or long term health problem that restricts their day-to-day activities.
	370,000 people in NI have a disability (1 in 5 adults)
	• 5% of those with disabilities are children
	• 40% of households have someone with a disability
Disability	(ECNI Conference Dec. 2018)
	43% of calls to the Equality Commission NI are concerning disability matters - (ECNI).
	People with disabilities were less likely to feel workplace culture was welcoming and inclusive. 34% of people with disabilities were more likely to experience unwanted behaviours in the workplace – (ECNI).
Dependants	The NICS 2013/14 and the Board's EQIA 2015/16 found that single parent families were less likely to express overall confidence in policing than households with two adults and children or no children at all. There was a higher rate of victimisation for households consisting of a single adult with children compared with other types of household. Single parent families were more likely than households with two adults and children or no children at all to be worried about crime and personal safety. They were also more likely than households with two adults and children or no children at all to perceive anti-social behaviour to be at a high level in their area.

SCREENING QUESTIONS

Introduction

- 17. In making a decision as to whether or not there is a need to carry out an equality impact assessment, consider questions 1-4 listed below.
- 18. If the conclusion is none in respect of all of the Section 75 equality of opportunity and/or good relations categories, then the decision may be to screen the policy out. If a policy is 'screened out' as having no relevance to equality of opportunity or good relations, please detail the reasons for the decision taken.
- 19. If the conclusion is major in respect of one or more of the Section 75 equality of opportunity and/or good relations categories, then consideration should be given to subjecting the policy to the equality impact assessment procedure.
- 20. If the conclusion is minor in respect of one or more of the Section 75 equality categories and/or good relations categories, then consideration should still be given to proceeding with an equality impact assessment, or to:
 - measures to mitigate the adverse impact; or
 - the introduction of an alternative policy to better promote equality of opportunity and/or good relations.

In favour of a 'major' impact

- 21 (a) The policy is significant in terms of its strategic importance;
 - (b) Potential equality impacts are unknown, because, for example, there is insufficient data upon which to make an assessment or because they are complex, and it would be appropriate to conduct an equality impact assessment in order to better assess them;

- (c) Potential equality and/or good relations impacts are likely to be adverse or are likely to be experienced disproportionately by groups of people including those who are marginalised or disadvantaged;
- (d) Further assessment offers a valuable way to examine the evidence and develop recommendations in respect of a policy about which there are concerns amongst affected individuals and representative groups, for example in respect of multiple identities;
- (e) The policy is likely to be challenged by way of judicial review;
- (f) The policy is significant in terms of expenditure.

In favour of 'minor' impact

- 22 (a) The policy is not unlawfully discriminatory and any residual potential impacts on people are judged to be negligible;
 - (b) The policy, or certain proposals within it, are potentially unlawfully discriminatory, but this possibility can readily and easily be eliminated by making appropriate changes to the policy or by adopting appropriate mitigating measures;
 - (c) Any asymmetrical equality impacts caused by the policy are intentional because they are specifically designed to promote equality of opportunity for particular groups of disadvantaged people;
 - (d) By amending the policy there are better opportunities to better promote equality of opportunity and/or good relations.

In favour of none

- 23 (a) The policy has no relevance to equality of opportunity or good relations.
 - (b) The policy is purely technical in nature and will have no bearing in terms of its likely impact on equality of opportunity or good relations for people within the equality and good relations categories.
- 24. Taking into account the evidence presented above, consider and comment on the likely impact on equality of opportunity and good relations for those affected by this policy, in any way, for each of the equality and good relations categories, by applying the screening questions given overleaf and indicate the level of impact on the group i.e. minor, major or none.

Additional considerations

Multiple identity

25. Generally speaking, people can fall into more than one Section 75 category. Taking this into consideration, are there any potential impacts of the policy/decision on people with multiple identities? (For example; disabled minority ethnic people; disabled women; young Protestant men; young lesbians, gay and bisexual people).

There will be multiple identity impacts on a number of categories including the potential for all categories to be included in this.

26. Provide details of data on the impact of the policy on people with multiple identities. Specify relevant Section 75 categories concerned.

The Board's engagement with various S75 groups representing persons with multiple identity means the Board will be aware of the likely impact.

The Board consulted on its Corporate Plan and Equality and Disability action plans. The Business Plan is aligned with these overarching plans. Consultation included representatives from some of the S75 groups whose views were taken into account when developing the final overarching action plans for the next 3 years.

Part 3

Screening decision

27. If the decision is not to conduct an equality impact assessment, please provide details of the reasons.

The Business Plan will be influenced by the PSNI Policing Plan, the Northern Ireland
Policing Board Corporate Plan and Engagement Strategy, the Department of Justice Corporate Plan and the Draft Programme for Government. Consultation has taken place on all these overarching plans with the public to ensure the plans do not discriminate against any of the categories.

28. If the decision is not to conduct an equality impact assessment, consider if the policy should be mitigated or an alternative policy be introduced.

The overall impact of the Corporate and Business Plan will be designed to ensure a strong equality theme will be running through the key priorities and should not require mitigation or an alternative policy.

29. If the decision is to subject the policy to an equality impact assessment, please provide details of the reasons.

30.	Further advice on equality impact assessment may be found in a separate Equality Commission publication: "Practical Guidance on Equality Impact Assessment".

Mitigation

- 31. When the public authority concludes that the likely impact is 'minor' and an equality impact assessment is not to be conducted, the public authority may consider mitigation to lessen the severity of any equality impact, or the introduction of an alternative policy to better promote equality of opportunity or good relations.
- 32. Can the policy/decision be amended or changed or an alternative policy introduced to better promote equality of opportunity and/or good relations?
- 33. If so, give the reasons to support your decision, together with the proposed changes/amendments or alternative policy.

The overall impact of the Corporate and Business Plans for the Northern Ireland Policing Board will have a strong equality theme running through its key priorities and will take consideration of key findings identified through monitoring processes.

Timetabling and prioritising

- 34. Factors to be considered in timetabling and prioritising policies for equality impact assessment.
- 35. If the policy has been 'screened in' for equality impact assessment, then please answer the following questions to determine its priority for timetabling the equality impact assessment.
- 36. On a scale of 1-3, with 1 being the lowest priority and 3 being the highest, assess the policy in terms of its priority for equality impact assessment.

Priority criterion	Rating
	(1-3)
Effect on equality of opportunity and good relations	n/a
Social need	n/a
Effect on people's daily lives	n/a
Relevance to a public authority's functions	n/a

- 37. Note: The Total Rating Score should be used to prioritise the policy in rank order with other policies screened in for equality impact assessment. This list of priorities will assist the public authority in timetabling. Details of the Public Authority's Equality Impact Assessment Timetable should be included in the quarterly Screening Report.
- 38. Is the policy affected by timetables established by other relevant public authorities?
- 39. If yes, please provide details.

Part 4

Monitoring

- 40. Public authorities should consider the guidance contained in the Equality Commission's Monitoring Guidance for Use by Public Authorities (July 2007).
- 41. The Equality Commission recommends that where the policy has been amended or an alternative policy introduced, the public authority should monitor more broadly than for adverse impact (See Benefits, P.9-10, paras 2.13 2.20 of the Monitoring Guidance).
- 42. Effective monitoring will help the public authority identify any future adverse impact arising from the policy which may lead the public authority to conduct an equality impact assessment, as well as help with future planning and policy development.
